Day 2: Conference

08:00 AM – Opening Ceremony

- Location: Grand Salon C&D

09:45 AM–11:30 AM – High School Workshop: Owning Your Future: Leadership, Fairness, and Opportunity in Today's World

- Location: TBD
- As high school students prepare for college, careers, and leadership roles, understanding how to navigate fairness, respect, and opportunity in an evolving social and professional landscape is essential. This session will explore the factors that shape success, from access to resources to advocating for themselves in competitive spaces. Panelists will discuss overcoming obstacles, building strong networks, and creating pathways for success while ensuring they uphold respect for themselves and others. Through real-world scenarios and mentor-guided discussions, participants will gain practical strategies to lead with confidence, challenge unfair barriers, and seize opportunities that shape their future.

12:00 PM-02:00 PM – Salute To Our Youth Luncheon

- Location: Grand Ballroom

02:30 PM-04:00 PM – Wells Fargo High School Workshop I: Hands on Banking® Experience

- Location: TBD
- The Hands-on Banking® Experience is a real-world money management simulation for high school students. This interactive program teaches essential financial concepts, including budgeting, comparison shopping, and making informed decisions about needs, wants, and trade-offs. Through engaging and relevant activities, students gain practical financial skills to help them navigate real-life financial situations with confidence.

04:30 PM-06:30 PM – Middle & High School Workshop: AI in Your World: Understanding and Engaging with Artificial Intelligence

- Location: Churchill A&B
- Artificial Intelligence (AI) is shaping the world around us—from social media and streaming services to virtual assistants and online shopping. You use it daily, but how does it work, and why is it important for students? This interactive workshop will introduce middle and high school students to AI concepts, real-world applications, and the growing impact on careers and daily life. Through hands-on activities, discussions, and live AI demonstrations, students will explore how AI influences their choices, learn to think critically about technology, and even experiment with AI-powered tools. Get ready to engage, create, and take control of your digital future!

07:00 PM-10:00 PM – Youth & Chaperone Orientation / Youth Party

- Location: Offsite – Creole Queen Riverboat

11:00 PM – Curfew / Check-in

6 June 2025 (Friday)

Day 3: Conference (Presentation Day)

08:00 AM-10:00 AM - State Of The 100 Breakfast

- Location: Grand Ballroom

10:30 AM-12:00 PM – High School Workshop: Defining Character: Shaping Values, Choices, and Leadership

- Location: TBD
- What does character mean in today's world? How do young leaders define integrity, respect, and accountability, and how should these values be taught? In this interactive session, high school students will engage in open discussions and real-world scenarios that explore how character shapes their decisions, relationships, and future success. Through thought-provoking activities and peer conversations, they will share their perspectives on why character matters and how it can be effectively taught and reinforced. Their insights will help shape a future character education program designed by youth for youth, making it meaningful and impactful. Real Talk: Character, Choices, and Leadership!

12:30 PM-02:30 PM - The Chairman's Awards Luncheon

- Location: Grand Ballroom

03:00 PM-04:15 PM - State Farm Youth Dollars & $ense Competition

- Location: Grand Salon C&D
- There's a possibility that we will skip this event to prepare for the NextEra STEM Grant presentation
